FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Compunetix Leadership Recognized by Frost & Sullivan

Award marks growth and strategic market positioning

Monroeville, Pa., October 27, 2008 – Compunetix, Inc. has accepted the 2008 Award for Global Competitive Strategy Leadership from the Growth Partnership Company Frost & Sullivan. The Award is presented to Compunetix in recognition for demonstrating outstanding achievement and superior performance resulting in strong growth and leadership positioning in the service provider segment of the global audio conferencing media processor market. Compunetix is first in the CSP segment market share and has exhibited a growth rate that is four times that of the overall market. The Award measurement criteria included percent growth in revenue, degree of strategy innovation, successful alliances, mergers and acquisitions, market share growth, correlation between revenues and investment, and penetration rate of new markets.

“The Compunetix internal strategy of leveraging its in-house manufacturing and engineering expertise and its external strategy of strategic partnerships and customer-centric innovations has allowed it to differentiate itself in the industry and land the company in the top tier of our rankings,” notes Frost & Sullivan’s Unified Communications Practice Industry Analyst, Ms. Krithi Rao.

“It is our continued strategy to remain focused on our core competencies and consistently deliver superior solutions to our service provider clients,” stated Mr. Gerard Pompa, Compunetix Vice President and Division Manager of the Communications Systems Division. “We are pleased to be recognized again by Frost & Sullivan for our market leadership and persistent path of innovative excellence.”
