FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Compunetix Executive to Share Collaboration Technology at InfoComm 2012

Monroeville, Pa., June 7, 2012 – Compunetix, Inc., the leading manufacturer of collaborative conferencing platforms, announced that Mr. Gerard Pompa, Senior Vice President and Division Manager of the Communications Systems Division, will host the annual Interactive Multimedia and Collaborative Communications Alliance (IMCCA) Government Special Interest Group (GSIG) meeting at InfoComm, held at the Las Vegas Convention Center on June 13. The IMCCA GSIG brings together members to interact and share knowledge on collaborative conferencing technology within the government structure, including the local, state, and federal governments.

In addition to hosting the GSIG meeting, Mr. Pompa will also be speaking at the IMCCA State of the Industry Lunch and Learn at InfoComm. He will be among other industry experts, sharing the latest news and issues associated with conferencing, collaboration, and unified communications. Attendees will have the opportunity to gain essential insight into the latest user applications, as well as the effect mobility and interoperability continue to have on the industry.

"The GSIG is a great way for Compunetix to share its 40+ years of experience within the government sector of the communication industry, as well as learn about customer requirements. I look forward to discussing the trends and technology use with government end users and industry leaders at this year's meeting," comments Mr. Pompa.

To join the IMCCA GSIG, visit <http://www.linkedin.com/groups/IMCCA-Government-Special-Interest-Group-3787459/about>. Details regarding InfoComm and the events from June 9-15 can be found at www.infocommshow.org.

About the IMCCA

The Interactive Multimedia & Collaborative Communications Alliance (IMCCA) is a not-for-profit user application and industry focused association with membership comprised of service and product providers, consultants, and users. Members benefit from the understanding and the use of various interactive and collaborative communications technologies in their professional and everyday lives. For further information please contact Carol Zelkin, IMCCA Executive Director, at 516-818-8184 or czelkin@imcca.org. Visit the IMCCA web site at www.imcca.org.
