FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sonexis and Compunetix Align to Offer Powerful Enterprise Video

New solution to be unveiled at Enterprise Connect

Monroeville, Pa., March 11, 2013 – The Compunetix, Inc. Video Systems Division (VSD), a global leader in carrier-grade, VoIP and high definition video collaboration solutions, and sister company Sonexis, the premier provider of in-house and web conferencing platforms for the enterprise environment, are pleased to announce their audio video platform integration solution. The integration will link the VSD EVERGREEN™ MCU and the Sonexis ConferenceManager™ via open and flexible APIs, enabling a seamless multipoint and multimodal audio and video collaboration experience. The partnership continues to solidify the Compunetix stance as a total solutions provider with the reputation, flexibility, and quality of service to address unified communications and collaboration needs. The integration will be a highlight at Enterprise Connect 2013, the premier enterprise conference and expo. On March 18 – 21 in Orlando, FL, key personnel will be available at booth 530 to demo the new customizable turnkey video solution for the enterprise. To sign up to attend Enterprise Connect, visit <http://www.enterpriseconnect.com/orlando/>

"This integration will allow us to penetrate new market segments and fulfill video requirements, introducing us to new prospects and areas of business," explains Mr. Dan Watkins, Executive Vice President of Sonexis. "We are the perfect answer to the evolving UC+C environment – the agility to customize along with the experience to help enterprises navigate the trends."

"As part of our desire to provide a complete and holistic solution set to the market, we continue to add additional products to our roster through Strategic Technology partners," states Mr. Eric Murphy, Global Solutions Manager of VSD. "Sonexis and the ConferenceManager are an important piece of that puzzle geared towards creating a complete unified environment for the enterprise."
